MESSAGE OF VICE CHANCELLOR

Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences, Jamshoro being the First Public Sector Medical University of Pakistan, is fully aware of its leadership role in medical education, patient care and medical research. It is also aware of its responsibilities towards the society with particular reference to the production of various cadres of health professionals, both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, who are competent, efficient, caring and are capable of pursuing scholastic and research activities. Accordingly, it envisages a comprehensive and rather an ambitious mission statement, which includes: To become a world leader in research and teaching. To increase significantly the range of human knowledge and understanding by creating knowledge through research of international excellence. To equip graduates so as to make an important contribution to the patient care and fighting disease across boundaries. To serve the region and the country professionally, academically, culturally and economically. To strengthen and diversify activities on the health delivery system, professional collaboration and entrepreneurialism. To continue to make professional education available to all those able to benefit from it, regardless of economic or social status. These goals do require lot of hard work, commitment and dedication, which has been amply exhibited by the faculty of this institution. I am confident that with the support of our faculty, students, society at large and the government we will be able to achieve these goals in near future.

PROF. DR. IKRAM DIN UJJAN

VICE CHANCELLOR,

Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences, Jamshoro

MR. MUNEEB AHMED UMRANI

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Simrah Institute of Medical and Health Sciences Jamshoro.

MESSAGE OF DIRECTOR/PRINCIPAL

I am glad to welcome you to Simrah institute of medical and health sciences, Pakistan's most prestigious autonomous private institute.

The institute, which is located in the heart of Sindh, Jamshoro Educational City, provides a very beautiful, tranquil, and safe atmosphere. This creates perfect circumstances for academic, athletic, and extracurricular activity. Our inclusive spirit and dedication to the highest standards of all-round education have earned the institute an outstanding reputation. We are happy and grateful that our students come from all around Pakistan and represent a diverse range of society. We focus on character development, imparting strong moral values, developing healthy personalities, and raising awareness of societal responsibility. We are acutely conscious of our responsibility to prepare our pupils to navigate the world as confident, compassionate, dignified, and responsible global citizens. The institution's sense of discipline and respect for norms is one of its greatest assets. It is a learning community that strives to enhance our essential principles of unwavering faith, belief in hard effort, achievement by honest and fair methods, and fearlessly tackling obstacles. At SIMHS, we strive to instil in our pupils an ever ending thirst for knowledge. We seek to instil an open mind, as well as constructive and sensible thinking. We attempt to instil curiosity, inquisitiveness, and a thirst for information. We promote open debate and the free exchange of ideas.

Our professors, students, and support personnel, in my opinion, are among the finest. We create a highly favorable and rich learning atmosphere in which all teachers work hard and devotionally to take advantage of every chance to convey information. In all we do, we strongly believe in a meritocracy. In the next years, increasing focus will be made at all levels on developing our students' potential in areas other than academics. Leadership, discipline, and organizational abilities will be heavily emphasized in their co - curricular education. We want and aspire to make SIMHS a center of excellence in all fields. SIMRAH INSTITUTE is a one-of-a-kind and engaging educational community. I'm looking forward to meeting you here.

SCOPE OF PHYSIOTHERAPY

The scope of physiotherapy is extensive and multifaceted, encompassing the various areas of health care. Physiotherapists play a crucial role in rehabilitation, helping patients recover from injuries, surgeries, and chronic conditions through tailored exercise programs and therapeutic techniques. They are essential in pain management, utilizing methods like manual therapy and modalities to alleviate discomfort. Additionally, physiotherapy includes preventive care, aimed at reducing the risk of injuries, particularly among athletes and individuals in physically demanding jobs. Specializations within the field include paediatric physiotherapy, which addresses developmental issues in children, and geriatric physiotherapy, focusing on age-related conditions to enhance mobility and the quality of life in older adults. Cardiopulmonary physiotherapy helps patients with respiratory and cardiac issues improve their functional capacity, while neurological physiotherapy aids those with conditions like stroke and multiple sclerosis in regaining movement and independence. Sports physiotherapy emphasizes injury prevention and performance enhancement for athletes, while women's health physiotherapy addresses pelvic health issues and prenatal/postnatal care. Overall, physiotherapy continues to evolve, integrating advancements in technology and research to improve treatment outcomes and promote physical well-being across diverse populations.

Career Opportunities

Physiotherapy focuses on the treatment of injuries and musculoskeletal disorders in patients. Physiotherapists diagnose and rehabilitate injured and differently-abled individuals. Here are some career opportunities in physiotherapy:

RULES OF ADMISSION

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The admission in the course of Doctor of Physiotherapy will purely be on merit basis. Those candidates who have passed the Higher Secondary School Certificate (HSC) Examinations (Pre-Medical Group) or 'A' level (Pre-Medical, Equivalency Required) secured at least 60% in aggregate from any Board of Higher Secondary Education in Pakistan or any Institution from Foreign Countries duly recognized by Inter-Board Committee of Chairman (IBCC) are eligible to apply for the DPT Admission.

The candidate should be permanent Resident of any District of Sindh.

FORMULA FOR WORKING OUT THE OVERALL MERIT:

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| a) HSC (Pre-Medical)/ Equivalent Examination | 50% weightage |
| b) Entry Test | 50% weightage |

Example:

If a candidate has obtained the following marks:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------|
| A. HSC/A-Level Equivalent marks | 660/1100 or 60.00% |
| B. Entry Test Marks | 80/200 or 40.00% |

His/His/Her Merit will be calculated as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| A. HSC/A-Level Equivalent marks | $60.00\% \times 0.5 = 30.000$ |
| B. Entry Test Marks | $40.00\% \times 0.5 = 20.000$ |
| OVER ALL MERIT OF THE CANDIDATE | $A+B=30.000+20.0000 = 50.000$ |

All calculation in percentages will be rounded up to three decimal points.

No deduction in gap of year.

In case the overall scores of two or more candidates are equal, the candidate

Older in age shall be ranked higher in merit for the purpose of admission.

Once option exercised for admission will be final and there will be no change in the admission category from “Self-Finance” to “Open Merit” but in case the candidate who is finally declared for provisional selection under open merit category, if, he/she leaves/ withdraws from provisional selection or incase such seat under same category falls vacant from any District of Pakistan during the period before or up to 45 days same it shall be filled through changing the admission category of candidate who is standing next on merit and he/she has selected provisionally under self-finance vacate seat shall be filled through maintaining of merit as per merit list self-finance category.
